6.1 Water Chapter

Dan Griset, SCAG Staff, provided status on the progress of the chapter and asked the members for feedback on Chapter goals, performance outcomes/indicators, and action plan. Jacob Lieb informed the group that the plan is to have discussions on these topics and then reduce the topics to four (4) potential performance outcomes for the region.

Jacob Lieb, SCAG Staff, informed the group that in the fall, staff will be presenting the task force with specific proposal of performance outcomes, how to set the bar in terms of measurement, and strategies required to complete the task.

6.2 Task Force Membership

Jacob Lieb, SCAG Staff, informed the task force that, informally, over the past year, there has been an effort to recruit new members to the task force, with limited to no success. Jacob asked that the group provide him with a list of potential names for the task force so that he could provide those names to the SCAG President, Yvonne Burke, for consideration of appointment. The goal is to have 2 Regional Council representatives from each of the 6 counties on this task force.

Toni Young made a request to have the meeting time changed to 10:00 – 12:00 Noon. After discussion, it was agreed to change the day of the meeting to the second Monday of the month instead of the fourth Monday of the month.

6.3 Regional Council Retreat

Jacob Lieb thanked the task force members who participated at the special Retreat session. He informed the group that the RCP task force has been offered to program 3 of 4 special workshops to be held on Regional Council meeting days. The first workshop will take place in October, with Professor Robert Kauffman, Boston University, speaking on energy issues.

MEMO

DATE: August 14, 2006

TO: Regional Comprehensive Plan Task Force

FROM: Jacob Lieb, Program Manager II, (213) 236-1921, lieb@scag.ca.gov

SUBJECT: Regional Comprehensive Plan Review and Update

SUMMARY:

The Regional Comprehensive Plan (RCP) Task Force has completed its second stage of chapter review and discussion, and, at the same time, added several new Task Force members. As such, staff has prepared this review of the overall RCP purpose and approach, as well as an update on status and next steps.

BACKGROUND:

The RCP is intended to accomplish several regional and organizational objectives. Principally, the plan will collect and consolidate the region's policies, set measurable performance targets for the future, and lay out clear strategies and actions for achieving those targets. The plan serves as the basis for SCAG's on-going Inter-Governmental Review (IGR) effort, and its completion fulfills SCAG's obligation to mitigate environmental impacts of the 2004 RTP.

Approach (outcomes, strategy)

The approach for the RCP involves the development of specific performance outcomes within each of the 9 chapters. The performance outcomes are the centerpiece of each chapter, will be the region's stated goals for the full range of planning topics. Each chapter will go on, then, to delineate a strategy to achieve the performance outcomes. The outcomes and strategies in each chapter will be consistent with, and an extension of, the region's adopted growth vision developed under the Compass/2% Strategy effort.

Further, staff intends to use the plan to align resources and leverage to aid in implementation. For example, the current State infrastructure bond measures contain discretionary funds for the implementation of regional plans. The RCP will be the instrument used to direct resources such as these.

Process

The RCP Task Force meets monthly and guides staff on the development of the plan. To date, the Task Force has reviewed policies and preliminary action plans for each chapter, and given staff input on the development of performance outcomes.

Additionally, staff is advised on the development of individual chapters by the following groups:

- Solid Waste Task Force
- Energy Working Group
- Open Space Working Group
- Water Policy Task Force

Staff also provides regular updates to the Sub-regional Coordinators and the Benchmarks Task Force.

MEMO

Contents and Key Policy Issues to Date

The RCP is composed of 9 chapters and two “special focus sections.

Chapters

- Land Use and Housing
- Energy
- Solid and Hazardous Waste
- Water
- Air Quality
- Open Space and Habitat
- Economy
- Transportation
- Security and Emergency Preparedness

Special Focus Sections

- Finance
- Education

Each chapter will have the following components:

- Performance Outcomes and Indicators
- Regional Policies
- Existing Conditions
- Strategy and Action Plan
- Bibliography and reference

Through discussions and work progress to date, the following have emerged as potential key policy issues in the plan:

- Inadequate protection of remaining open space and agriculture
- Depletion of fossil fuels
- Difficulty of pursuing new technologies in solid waste management
- Disjointed water quality planning
- Air contaminants associated with transportation facilities

Resources

SCAG has a 10 member staff team assigned to the RCP. Each Chapter has a lead author. In addition, SCAG has, to date, retained 3 consultant teams to assist on various portions of the plan, as follows:

- Open Space and Habitat led by Jones and Stokes
- Finance led by Pacific Municipal Finance
- Energy led by Jack Faucett Associates

There is a program website that is periodically updated with new drafts of chapter materials at www.scag.ca.gov/rcp.

Next Steps and Schedule

MEMO

During the second quarter of the 2006-07 fiscal year (Sept-November), staff will present a preliminary proposal for quantified performance outcomes for each chapter. The staff proposal will be based on Task Force discussions to date. Pending Task Force review, each proposal will also be brought to the appropriate policy committee. Subsequently, staff will engage a six month process to seek stakeholder input and develop detailed strategy elements.

The master schedule for the remainder of the RCP process is attached.

Environmental Review

Staff will prepare an Environmental Impact Report for the RCP. At present, we anticipate that this document will be combined with the RTP Program EIR (the same EIR will cover both plans). It is staff's hope that the EIR for the RCP will facilitate streamlined environmental review for consistent plans and projects at the sub-regional and local level.
